

Robert Riviello, MD, MPH
Trauma and Acute Care General Surgeon, Brigham and Women's Hospital

Dr. Riviello's clinical and research interests are in global health, specifically the reduction of disparities and the expansion of surgical delivery for low-income populations by developing surgical workforce and surgical infrastructure in sub-Saharan Africa.

Dr. Riviello went to the University of California at San Diego. He then completed his General Surgery Residency at Vanderbilt University Medical Center and a Fulbright International Fellowship in Global Surgery at Centro Evangelico de Medicina do Lubango. Prior to joining the faculty Dr. Riviello completed Fellowships in Acute Care and Burn Surgery and Critical Care Medicine at Brigham and Women's Hospital.

Education

2001 University of California San Diego, San Diego, CA
Doctor of Medicine
2001 Harvard School of Public Health, Boston, MA
Master of Public Health

Postdoctoral Training

2001 - 2006 Vanderbilt University Medical Center, Nashville, TN
General Surgery Residency
2006 - 2007 Centro Evangelico de Medicina, Lubango, Angola
Fulbright International Fellow in Global Surgery
2007 - 2008 Brigham & Women's Hospital, Boston, MA
Acute Care and Burn Surgery Fellowship
2008 - 2009 Brigham & Women's Hospital, Boston, MA
Anesthesia Critical Care Medicine Fellowship

Licensure & Certification

American Board of Surgery
Tennessee State Medical License
Massachusetts State Medical License
ATLS Instructor Certified