

2011 CIMIT Student Prize for Primary Healthcare Full Proposal Application Guidelines for Invited Finalists

Instructions on this page should be followed by the student finalists to submit a full proposal for the CIMIT Student Prize in Primary Healthcare.

Full proposal applications are due May 31, 2011 by no later than 11:59pm EST.

All applications must use the CIMIT web-based submission system. The system URL will be open to invited finalists for full proposal submissions beginning in May 2011.

To input your proposal online, you must upload a single file in a composite pdf format (less than 10MB in size) containing the following documents:

A title page, including:

1. Project title
2. Name and contact information for the student team leader (email, phone, mailing address)
3. Names of all student team members, including department and level of education
4. Names, titles, and institutions of all non-student collaborators AND role in project (e.g. mentor, clinical advisor, technical advisor, etc.)
5. Name, title contact information for the responsible institutional official, signature, and date (i.e. an "Institutional Official" is an individual with authority to accept responsibility for funds and to signoff on behalf of the applicant institution)
6. Name, title and contact information for department head or faculty mentor

Body of the project text (no more than 20 pages in length). Sections of the project text should include:

- Aims
- Specific goals
- Methodology
- Description of any prototype and/or pilot data
- Comparative advantages and disadvantages with respect to other know technologies or approaches considered
- Advantages over typical current primary care practices
- Summary of conclusions

Additional pages of detailed figures (drawings, photographs, graphs, etc.), if needed, up to 10 pages in number. If your composite pdf exceeds 10 MB, please contact <mailto:cimitprize@partners.org> before the deadline to receive instructions for submission.

Video attachment is allowed IF useful in conveying function or results, no more than 10 minutes in length! Any videos you may have of your final projects can be posted to YouTube (or any other video hosting site) and the link should be included in your final submission. Please opt for the "private" posting option rather than the "public" posting.

Additional instructions:

- All text must be in a readable font (at least Arial 10 point), and margins must be at least 0.5 inches.
